

NEW STUFF ALERT

direct[®]
DataHub[™]

We're sharing your data/files with you instantly and perpetually, in a magical cyber cloud.

We build a shared file set for your properties and load it with all of your stuff.

Quotes | Mechanical HVAC PM and Due Diligence Surveys | Electrical Due Diligence Surveys | Electrical Infrared Surveys | Electrical Nighttime Lighting Inspection Surveys | Plumbing Due Diligence Surveys | Plumbing Lift Station PM Surveys | Plumbing Backflow Certifications + Anything else you need

→ NO MORE back-and-forth, searching, or data clutter to sift through in your email inbox.

- ✗ "Hey, can you please send me that quote again?"
- ✗ "Do you have the surveys for this property?"
- ✗ "Do you know if this is the latest and greatest set of surveys?"
- ✓ NO need to clutter up your own server space
- ✓ NO waiting; get the info you need NOW
- ✓ NO more other problems that I'm unable to think of right now...

The benefits are a real game-changer.

- + Increased productivity for both of our teams means quicker and better resolutions
- + Our production moves faster since we're no longer busy researching
- + No waiting for normal business hours to get your data
- + Individual user logins allow your entire team can have access, even while you're away
- + All data files are centralized and we'll both use the same system
- + Less confusion, email chains, and phone calls
- + See all of your data at a glance
- + No need to ask tenants for copies of their PM documents
- + Access your data & files anytime, anywhere
- + It's FREE
